RULES OF BOTH HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT

RESPECTING THE LIBRARY OF PARLIAMENT.

A proper Catalogue of the Books belonging to the Library shall be kept by the Librarians in whom the custody and responsibility thereof shall be vested; and who shall be required to report to the Houses through Mr. Speaker, at the opening of each Session, the actual state of the Library.

No person shall be entitled to resort to the Library during the Session of Parliament except the Governor General, the members of the Privy Council, and of the Senate and House of Commons, and the Officers of both Houses, and such other persons as may receive a written order of admission from the Speaker of either House. Members may personally introduce strangers to the Library during the daytime, but not after the hour of seven o'clock, P.M.

During a Session of Parliament no books belonging to the Library shall be taken out of the building, except by the authority of the Speaker or upon receipts given by a member of either House.

During the recess of Parliament, the Library and Reading Room shall be open every day in each week, Sundays and Holidays excepted, from the hour of ten in the morning until four in the afternoon; and access to the Library shall be permitted to persons introduced by a member of the Legislature, or admitted at the discretion of the Librarians; subject to such regulations as may be deemed necessary for the security and preservation of the collection; but no one shall be allowed to take any book out of the Library except members of the Legislature, and such other as may be authorized by the Speaker of either House.

During the recess of Parliament, no member of either House not residing at the seat of Government, shall have liberty to borrow or have in his possession at any one time more than three works, from the Library, or to retain the same for a longer period than one month.

No other person who may be privileged by card, by the Speaker of either House, to borrow books, from the Library, shall be allowed to have in his possession more than two books at any one time, or to retain the same longer than three weeks, and all such persons shall return the books so taken when required by the Librarians.

No books of reference or books of special cost and value may be removed from the seat of Government under any circumstances.

At the first meeting of the Joint Library Committee at every Session of Parliament, the Librarians shall report a list of the books absent at the commencement of the Session, specifying the names of any persons who have retained the same in contravention of either of the foregoing Rules.

RÈGLEMENTS

CONCERNANT LA

BIBLIOTHÈQUE.

Un catalogue des livres de la Bibliothèque est tenu par les Bibliothécaires qui en ont la garde et la responsabilité; ils doivent faire rapport à la Chambre, par l'entremise de M. l'Orateur, à l'ouverture de chaque Session, de l'état dans lequel se trouve la Bibliothèque.

Aucune personne ne peut avoir accès à la Bibliothèque, pendant les Sessions du Parlement, si ce n'est le Gouverneur Général, les membres du Conseil Privé, ceux du Sénat et de la Chambre des Communes, les Officiers des deux Chambres, et toute autre personne qui obtient un billet d'admission de l'Orateur de l'une ou de l'autre Chambre. Les membres peuvent en personne introduire des étrangers dans la Bibliothèque pendant le jour, mais non après sept heures P.M.

Pendant les Sessions du Parlement, aucun livre de la Bibliothèque ne peut être emporté de l'édifice, excepté sur l'autorisation de l'Orateur, ou lorsqu'un membre de l'une ou de l'autre Chambre en donne un reçu.

Pendant la vacance du Parlement, la Bibliothèque et la Chambre de Lecture sont ouvertes tous les jours de chaque semaine, excepté les dimanches et jours de fête, depuis dix heures du matin jusqu'à quatre heures de l'après-midi; et la Bibliothèque est ouverte aux personnes introduites par un membre de la Législature, ou admises à la discrétion des Bibliothécaires, sujettes aux règles qui sont jugées nécessaires pour la sûreté et la conservation des livres, mais il n'est permis à qui que ce soit, si ce n'est aux membres de la Législature et aux autres personnes ayant l'autorisation de l'Orateur de l'une ou de l'autre Chambre, d'emporter un livre hors de la Bibliothèque.

Durant les vacances du Parlement, aucun membre de l'une ou de l'autre Chambre, ne résidant pas au siège du gouvernement, n'aura le droit d'emprunter ou de garder en sa possession plus de trois ouvrages à la fois; en outre, il ne devra pas les garder plus d'un mois en sa possession.

Aucune des personnes ayant le privilège—sur la foi d'une carte du président de l'une ou de l'autre Chambre,—d'emprunter des livres à la Bibliothèque, ne pourra avoir en sa possession plus de deux ouvrages à la fois ou les garder plus de trois semaines, et toutes ces personnes devront remettre les livres ainsi empruntés, lorsqu'elles en seront requises.

Aucun livre de référence, aucun ouvrage de luxe et de prix ne pourra être emporté du siège du gouvernement pour aucune considération.

A chaque Session du Parlement, les Bibliothécaires devront, à la première assemblée du comité mixte de la Bibliothèque, soumettre une liste de tous les livres qui n'ont pas encore été remis au commencement de la Session, en spécifiant les noms des personnes qui auront gardé ces livres contrairement aux règles qui précèdent.

In addition to the foregoing rules, the Joint Library Committee have agreed to the following New Rules, to which the attention of persons frequenting the Library, or making use of any books belonging thereto, is specially requested.

1. It is strictly forbidden to make any mark, by pencil or otherwise, in any books belonging to the Library, or to turn down leaves therein, or otherwise deface the same.
2. No person (other than a member of Parliament) is permitted to have access to any of the Galleries surrounding the Library, without the express permission of the Librarian or unless accompanied by an officer of the Library.
3. No visitor shall be permitted to remain in the Library with his hat on; nor will smoking, or spitting on the floor or carpet be permitted, in any of the Library apartments.
4. No audible conversation will be allowed in the reading room: nor shall any person be permitted to partake of refreshments therein; and no dogs shall be allowed in the Library.

Outre les règles qui précèdent, le Comité de la Bibliothèque a recommandé l'adoption des règles suivantes, dont les personnes qui fréquentent la Bibliothèque, ou font usage des livres qui la composent, sont priées de prendre connaissance :

1. Il est strictement défendu de faire aucune marque, au crayon ou autrement, dans un livre appartenant à la Bibliothèque, d'en plier les feuilles ou de le défigurer d'aucune autre manière.
2. Personne, à l'exception des membres du Parlement, ne pourra monter dans les galeries sans la permission expresse du bibliothécaire, ou sans être accompagné de quelque employé de la Bibliothèque.
3. Aucun visiteur ne pourra garder son chapeau sur sa tête; personne ne pourra fumer, ni cracher sur le parquet ou le tapis d'aucune des chambres de la Bibliothèque.
4. On ne pourra converser à haute voix dans la chambre de lecture; on ne devra pas non plus se permettre d'y manger. On ne laissera pas entrer de chiens dans la Bibliothèque.

REPORT

JOINT LIBRARIANS OF PARLIAMENT

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIANS FOR 1900

The Joint Librarians of Parliament have the honour to report as follows for the year 1900.

The Literature of the war in South Africa and of the Expedition to China has been duly provided.

The various economical questions that are before the public have not been neglected.

The revised Statutes of the various American States have been procured, to the date of latest revision.

Correspondence has been opened in order to provide the necessary exchange of Documents with the Australasian Confederation.

Several important additions have been made to the section of the early history of America. Among others are the following :

Harris, H. Découverte et Evolution cartographique de Terre-Neuve, 1497-1769. 4to Paris, 1900.

DeRoo, P. History of America before Columbus.

Fiske, John. Old Virginia and Her Neighbours. Illustrated.

Hariot's Brief and True Report of Virginia. Ed. by H. Stevens.

Chauveton, Urb. Voyage de quelques Français en Floride, édition originale de 1579.

The Reprint of the Jesuit Relations, by R. G. Thwaites, has reached the 71st vol.

Attention may be drawn to the importance of the last mentioned Americana. Its translation into English will enable the students in American history, not conversant either with the Latin or French language, to consult these valuable records which have become, as a critic expresses it, the source from which we must draw almost all the historic material of New York and Canada during the first century and a half of their exploration by Europeans.

The Librarians have deemed it their duty at the opening of several previous sessions to call the attention of Parliament to the want of space in the Library. During the last few years, all manners of devices had to be resorted to in order to find shelf accommodation for the new books; but the climax seems to have been reached in this matter. It will not be out of place to recall to Members of Parliament that the Library accommodation was found deficient when it was taken possession of in 1877. In connection with this, it will be appropriate to quote what the late Librarian, Dr. Todd, presented to Parliament in his report for 1877 :—

‘So far back as May 14, 1859, when the erection of Parliament Buildings in Ottawa was first determined upon, the undersigned submitted to the Board of Works a memorandum specifying the nature and extent of the accommodation required for the Library. This memorandum pointed out that the Library premises should include one large apartment, with three tiers in light iron galleries, capable of containing 200,000

RAPPORT DES BIBLIOTHÉCAIRES POUR 1900

Les bibliothécaires conjoints du parlement ont l'honneur de présenter le rapport suivant pour l'année 1900 :—

La bibliothèque s'est enrichie de tous les ouvrages qui ont été publiés sur la guerre sud-africaine et sur l'expédition en Chine. On y trouvera aussi des volumes se rapportant aux différentes questions économiques dont s'occupe en ce moment le public.

Les Statuts révisés (dernière édition) des différents Etats de la république voisine se trouvent maintenant sur nos rayons.

Les bibliothécaires se sont mis en communication avec les autorités du pays pour se procurer, au moyen d'échanges, les documents publics de la Confédération australienne.

Plusieurs ouvrages importants ont été ajoutés à la section de l'histoire de l'Amérique, entre autres ceux qui suivent :

Harris, H. Découverte et Evolution cartographique de Terre-Neuve, 1497-1769. 4to. Paris, 1900.

DeRoo, P. History of America before Columbus.

Fiske, John. Old Virginia and Her Neighbours. Illustrated.

Hariot's Brief and True Report of Virginia, Ed. by H. Stevens.

Chauveton, Urb. Voyages de quelques Français en Floride, édit. originale de 1579.

La réimpression des Relations des Jésuites, faites par R. G. Thwaites, est arrivée à son 71^e volume.

Il ne sera pas hors de propos d'attirer l'attention sur le dernier ouvrage mentionné parmi les Américana. Sa traduction en anglais permettra à ceux qui étudient l'histoire de l'Amérique, et qui ne connaissent ni le latin ni le français, de consulter ces documents qui, comme le fait remarquer un auteur, "constituent la source d'où nous devons tirer presque toutes les informations sur New-York et le Canada durant le premier siècle et demi de leurs explorations par des Européens."

Les bibliothécaires ont cru qu'il était de leur devoir, à l'ouverture de plusieurs des sessions précédentes, d'attirer l'attention du parlement sur le manque d'espace dont souffre la bibliothèque. Durant les dernières années on a dû avoir recours à toutes espèces de moyens pour placer les livres nouveaux, mais aujourd'hui on est à bout de ressources. Il convient de rappeler ici aux membres du parlement que la bibliothèque n'offrait pas assez d'espace pour remplir l'objet que l'on s'était proposé en la construisant, lorsqu'on en a pris possession en 1877. A ce sujet, il est opportun de citer ce que disait le Dr. Todd, alors bibliothécaire, en présentant son rapport pour l'année 1877 :—

"Dès le 14 mai 1859, époque où fut décidée la construction d'édifices parlementaires à Ottawa, le soussigné remit au bureau des Travaux Publics un mémoire faisant connaître quel espace serait nécessaire pour la bibliothèque.

"Ce mémoire spécifiait que le local devait se composer d'un grand appartement avec trois galeries en fer, capable de contenir 200,000 volumes. Autour de la grande volumes. Likewise, rooms to be grouped around the centre chamber for the exhibition of maps and pictures, for offices, for private study, and for necessary uses in the administration of a large and growing department.

‘Full particulars as to the size and disposition of these rooms were embodied in this memorandum; including the exact number of feet of shelving required for the number of volumes which it was estimated that the Library would hereafter contain. By this calculation it was shown that at least 25,000 feet of shelving would be needed to hold 200,000 volumes of the average size.

‘This memorandum was approved by the Board of Works; and printed copies of it were sent to all competing architects, with instructions to prepare their plans in strict conformity thereto. The plans finally chosen corresponded, in general design, with your Librarian’s suggestions, and he was notified by Mr. Samuel Keefer, the then Secretary of the Board, that his recommendations on behalf of the Library would be unreservedly carried out.

‘As the new building approached completion, and it became necessary to prepare for the transfer of the books, your Librarian caused measurements to be made, to ascertain the shelving at his disposal for the various classes and divisions of the Library; when to his surprise and disappointment it was discovered that only about 7,000 feet of shelving had been placed in the Central Room; which accordingly could not contain more than about 56,000 volumes.’

Members of Parliament will see from the above report, written over twenty years ago, that the question of finding more space for the Library forces itself on their attention.

Among the list of donations to the Library during the past Year, special mention should be made of the following:

From the Royal Humane Society, London: A collection of their annual publications, covering the period from 1820 to 1899, in 60 vols.

From the British Museum—Illustrated Guides to the various sections embracing Egyptian, Greek and Roman antiquities, as well as other exhibits.

From Her Majesty’s Stationery Office: A useful assortment of legal and parliamentary publications, including a set of the new revision of the Imperial Statutes in 14 vols.

From the Right Hon. The Secretary for the Colonies: A most valuable collection of documents relating to the question of the Boundary between British Guiana and Venezuela, and of the Boundary arbitration regarding Venezuela, together with a rich collection of fifty-two maps relating to the subject matter.

The list of donations to the Library and the List of Books deposited under the Copyright Act have been prepared and are hereto annexed.

The Catalogue of accessions for the year is in print and will be presented to Members at an early day.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. D. DeCELLES.
MARTIN J. GRIFFIN.

chambre centrale devaient être groupées d'autres chambres pour l'exposition de cartes et de tableaux, pour des bureaux, des chambres d'étude, et pour l'usage de l'administration d'un département aussi considérable et qui devait s'accroître de jour en jour. Le mémoire contenait des détails complets sur la dimension et la disposition de ces chambres, mentionnant même le nombre exact de pieds de tablettes exigés pour recevoir le nombre de volumes que la bibliothèque pourrait contenir à l'avenir. Ce calcul démontrait qu'il faudrait, au moins, 25,000 pieds de tablettes pour recevoir 200,000 volumes d'un format ordinaire.

"Le mémoire fut approuvé par le bureau des Travaux, et des copies imprimées en furent envoyées à tous les architectes compétents, avec instruction d'en prendre connaissance et d'y avoir égard en préparant leurs plans. Le plan originellement adopté correspondait avec les recommandations de votre bibliothécaire, lequel fut informé par M. Samuel Keefer, alors secrétaire du bureau, que ses recommandations relativement à la bibliothèque seraient suivies en tous points.

"Quand le nouvel édifice fut sur le point d'être achevé et qu'il devint nécessaire de se préparer au transport des livres, votre bibliothécaire fit faire certains mesurages pour s'assurer du nombre de tablettes qui pourraient être assignées aux diverses classes de livres, et il fut découvert, à sa grande surprise et à son grand désappointement, qu'environ 7,000 pieds de tablettes seulement se trouveraient à sa disposition dans la chambre centrale, ce qui ne pourrait donner place qu'à environ 56,000 volumes.

Parmi les dons à la bibliothèque durant l'année écoulée, mention spéciale doit être faite des suivants :

De la Royal Humane Society, de Londres : une collection de ses rapports, de 1820 à 1899. 60 vols.

Du British Museum : Guides illustrés de ses sections des antiquités égyptiennes, grecques et romaines, etc.

Du Bureau de papeterie de Sa Majesté : une collection utile de publications légales et parlementaires comprenant une nouvelle revision des Statuts Impériaux en 14 vols.

Du Très Hon. Secrétaire pour les Colonies : une très précieuse collection de documents se rapportant à la question des frontières de la Guiane et du Vénézuéla et aussi à la question de l'arbitrage pour la frontière du Vénézuéla avec une riche collection de 52 cartes concernant ce sujet.

Une liste des dons faits à la bibliothèque et aussi une liste des ouvrages déposés en vertu de l'acte qui protège la propriété littéraire sont annexées au présent rapport.

Le supplément annuel au catalogue de la bibliothèque est entre les mains de l'imprimeur et sera distribué aux membres dans quelques jours.

Le tout respectueusement soumis,

A. D. DECELLES.
